Who is SilentiumPC

Since 2007 SilentiumPC brings CPU coolers, cases and power supplies with main focus on exceptional value for money achieved through effective design and smart cost-cutting. No fancy trademark names, just well-thought-out products designed to work, chosen and praised by value-minded enthusiasts and system integrators across Europe.

2BY2 commented:

SilentiumPC is an innovating, young and refreshing company. It is a team of young enthusiastic gamers that out of their own experience are designing products that combine ultimate functionality, low prices and esthetically pleasing designs. Being part of the gaming and overclocking community themselves all products are being implemented and tested living up the high standards of a real gamer.

We were impressed with their design and quality and were especially enthusiastic about their Regnum RG1 case and Fera 3 CPU cooler.

SilentiumPC commented:

We choose 2BY2 as our distributor for Benelux because of their excellent reputation in Benelux markets combined with sheer enthusiasm and ability of introducing new brands such as ours. We look forward to a long and fruitful cooperation!
